

Terms and conditions for RF Amplifiers:

1. Line by line compliance statement and Detailed Technical literature/ Detailed Catalogues /reference to websites etc. to be provided, without which offer will be rejected.
2. During warranty, the Unit to be serviced & made operational within 15 days from date of reporting the problem. An undertaking to be provided by vendor for the same at the time of reporting the problem.
3. The vendor should be authorized supplier from original equipment manufacturer and should have established Service station in India approved by manufacturer. The details of Service station and capability to provide service on site and in-service station shall be supported by relevant documentary information. The offer of vendors who do not comply with service station requirement shall be rejected.
4. Test result of the specifications, to be supplied before shipment for Acceptance by ISRO and after Acceptance clearance by ISRO, shipment to be done.
5. The unit must be brand new.
6. Vendor has to mention specifically that at what periodic interval and how the maintenance of the units should be carried out.
7. Vendor shall carry full installation of amplifier on site at no extra cost for demonstrating the performance on site.
8. Two units should be delivered separately which operate in the frequency bands 18GHz-26.5GHz and 26.5GHz-40GHz.