41. Neither party shall bear responsibility for complete or partial non-performance of any of his obligations [except for failure to pay any sum which has become due on account of receipt of goods under the provisions of the Purchase Order/Contract], if the non-performance results from such force majeure circumstances such as, but not restricted to, flood, fire, earthquake, civil commotion, sabotage, explosion, epidemic, quarantine restriction, strike, lock out, freight embargo, acts of the Government either in its sovereign or its contractual capacity, hostility, acts of public enemy and other acts of God as well as war or revolution, military operation, blockade, acts or actions of state authorities or any other circumstances beyond the control of the parties that have arisen after the conclusion of Purchase Order/Contract. In such circumstances, the time stipulated for the performance of an obligation under the Purchase Order/Contract may be proportionately extended

42. If Contractor fail to rectify the defects, the Purchaser shall have right to reject or repair or replace, at the cost of the Contractor the whole or any portion of the defective Stores. The warranty for such replaced/repaired items/stores shall be for 24 months from the date of handing over of such replaced/repaired stores in complete and satisfactory condition to the Purchaser.

43. The decision of the Purchaser, notwithstanding any prior approval or acceptance or inspection thereof, on behalf of the Purchaser, as to whether or not the Stores supplied by the Contractor are defective or any defect has developed within the said period of 12 Months or as to whether the nature of the defects requires renewal or replacement, shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Contractor. The Warranty/Guarantee certificate has to accompany the shipment.

44. All the replacement Stores shall also be guaranteed for a period of 12 months from the date arrival of Stores at Purchaser's site.

45. Even while the 12 months guarantee applies to all Stores in case where a greater period is called for by our Specifications then such a specification shall apply, in such cases the period of 12 months referred to in Clause 6(10-14) shall be the 'asked for' guarantee period plus 2 Months.

46. The party for whom it has become impossible to meet the obligation under this contract due to force majeure condition shall notify the other party in writing not later than 7 days from the date of the occurrence and cessation of the force majeure condition/s. In the event of delay lasting over one month, arising from force majeure causes, the Purchaser reserves the right to cancel the contract without any obligation to compensate the Tenderer in any manner. Unless agreed by both the parties, in writing, the Contractor shall continue to perform his obligations under the Purchase Order/Contract as far as is practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event

47. Any Certificate issued by the Chamber of Commerce or any other competent authority or organization shall be sufficient proof of commencement and cessation of the above circumstances. In case of failure to carryout complete or partial performance of an obligation for more than 60 days, either party shall reserve the right to terminate the Contract totally or partially. A prior written notice of 30 days to the other party will be given informing of the intention to terminate without any liability.

48. The Force Majeure condition is applicable only to the prime Contractor and Purchaser.

49. Delay in Completion/Liquidated Damages:

50. The time and date stipulated in the contract for completion of the work shall be deemed to be the essence of the contract. If the Contractor fails to deliver the Stores within the time specified in the Contract or any extension thereof or if the Contractor fails to maintain the required progress or comply with the relevant provisions of the general conditions of contract or special conditions of contract, if any and clear the site on or before the contract or extended date of completion, the Purchaser shall, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available under the law to Purchaser on account of such breach, recover from the Contractor as Liquidated Damages a sum one-half of one percent [0.5 percent] of the Contract price of the undelivered Stores for each calendar week of delay or part thereof. The total Liquidated Damages shall not exceed Ten percent [10 percent] of the Contract price of the unit or units so delayed. Adherence and acceptance to this Clause is Compulsory or otherwise the Tender will be rejected.

51. In case of delay in delivery of the Stores beyond the delivery date stipulated in the Purchase Order/Contract or any extension thereof, such Stores shall be received without prejudice to the right of the Purchaser to claim Liquidated Damages and without prejudice to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Order/Contract.

52. Erection of Plant, Machinery and Installation of Software:
